

twins. Russell's wife's maiden name was Helen what? It is certainly gratifying to know some of my Carbondale students remember me through the years. I left Carbondale to go to Scranton in 1927 - forty years ago! A long time ago, I guess, but not according to my memory. Since Roy's death in 1955, as pupil I have in my first years teaching - Roy still, sends me a Christmas card and a letter. She named a daughter, Edna. I think I remember her, but the memory is quite dim. That was 1914 - sixty-three years ago! Courtship time for your parents? But I remember well.

Well, it is, once a beautiful city, is now with a slum area, made in less than a decade's time. It is said 95% of the Negroes in Detroit are fine, law-abiding good citizens and 99% of the white population. This small group filled with evil and evil intentions, aided and abetted by more, sinister forces through the nation has demonstrated how powerful a small minority can be - for good or bad.
